BOARD OF SUPERVISORS (Supervisor Hazard)

- 1a) Consider and discuss a letter opposing Assembly Bill 2456, which would provide the Director of the State Emergency Medical Services Authority (EMSA) with unlimited power to disallow and overturn years of local EMS Agency policies and procedures. AB 2456 would remove the flexibility critical to appropriate emergency care in rural areas and replace it with a lengthy and cumbersome process that does not improve the delivery of emergency services. The cost of the bill's implementation would be borne by local agencies and passed down to the EMS professionals via increased licensure fees.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Adopt and authorize the Chair's signature on a letter opposing AB 2456.

FISCAL IMPACT: None.
